

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ JUL 31 1935 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

Who's Who

AT THE NATIONAL
BOYS' AND GIRLS'
4-H CLUB CAMP

1935

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Extension Service

C. W. Warburton, Director

C. B. Smith, Assistant Director

W H O'S   W H O

at the

N I N T H

N A T I O N A L   4-H   C L U B   C A M P

Washington, D. C.

June 13-19, 1935

-----

C L U B   D E L E G A T E S

ALABAMA

Mr. Winfred Barton, Walker County, has grown corn and raised poultry and hogs since 1930, when he joined a 4-H club. He built a brooder house and a brick furnace for it. He has given poultry demonstrations, exhibited his corn and poultry at community and county fairs, and won many prizes. He was selected to attend Recreational Leadership School and also has attended club camps. He has organized three 4-H clubs and served as vice president, reporter, and president of his club. With the proceeds from his club work he paid his way through high school and now is sending his brother through high school, and in addition to helping with the expenses at home, he buys clothes for himself and his brother. He is responsible for a branch library. He plans to be a poultry specialist, and now has 62 hens, a fine henhouse and equipment, a 300 capacity brooder house full of baby chicks, and an incubator full of eggs. He also owns a brood sow.

Mr. Virgil DeLoney, Dale County, has been interested in corn-, peanut-, poultry-, cow-, and pig-club work since 1927. He has furnished eggs, poultry, and milk, and butchered a calf for home use, and has produced hay from his peanut project. He has sold cream. Each year since joining the 4-H club he has attended the club rally and the club camp. He has been a member of the livestock judging team at the State fair. As his project last year he carried poultry, 6 acres of corn, 12 acres of peanuts, and 1 calf.

Miss Clora Ella Paulk, Montgomery County, has done 8 years of club work in clothing, food preservation, home improvement, poultry, and calves. She has never missed a meeting. Each year she has obtained new members, has given many demonstrations in canning, makes her own clothes, and helps her mother with the family sewing. By sewing for others and selling her products on the curb market she has earned money for her clothes and schoolbooks. She refinished the living room, and this year is renovating the kitchen. Her community service includes taking the steam-pressure cooker to other homes and assisting busy mothers with their canning. She took charge of a relief-agency canning center, canned 3,000 cans of food, and taught others how to can. Later they placed her on the pay roll. She has had charge of two canning centers, and frequently has helped with a negro center. For the last 3 years she has helped her mother to prepare and sell on the curb market vegetables, flowers, and fowl. She has occupied the offices of president, vice president, secretary, and reporter of her club.

Miss Violet Whatley, Lee County, selected canning, clothing, baking, meal planning, poultry, gardening, and home improvement as her club projects. She has attended short course as a delegate from her county. Violet makes all her own clothes and helps with the family sewing and canning. She has made practical use of her home-improvement project. In 1932 she helped her brother to landscape the yard. She markets all surplus farm products, averaging $100 worth a year, which help the family income. She now owns a cow. She has improved her health rating from a low to one of the highs in the county. She has been president of her club.

ARKANSAS

Mr. Joe Roland Cox, Jackson County, has completed 24 demonstrations in crops, livestock, and poultry in his 8 years of club work. He has exhibited his work successfully at community and county fairs, winning many awards including eight blue ribbons. From his club enterprises he has realized a net return of $855.27. He was a member of the county livestock judging team that twice won second place in State-wide contests. He has been a delegate to 4-H camp three times. He has attended every meeting in 8 years. Roland has twice been president of the Jackson County 4-H Club Council, and now is secretary. He has been president of his club twice, vice president, captain, and recreational leader.

Mr. Frederick Seidenstricker, Prairie County, started in club work 6 years ago with a Holstein heifer. He now has an excellent herd of registered animals and also owns other farm property. He has represented his club in many demonstrations and judging contests. The Seidenstricker farm is an outstanding demonstration of father and son cooperation; Frederick's father has backed him in all his undertakings. In 1932 he was selected as State dairy-club champion and was named champion club boy of his county last year. He has won a trip to the Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City. He has been vice president and president of his club.

Miss Louise Stagner, Washington County, has been a club member for 5 years, having carried room improvement, clothing, gardening, and canning. At present she is secretary of the State 4-H Club Council. In 1931 as a member of the State winning demonstration team she represented Arkansas in the national competition at St. Louis. Louise was named champion 4-H club girl of her county in 1933, she was judging champion for canned goods in 1930, and has won 25 blue ribbons on her exhibits at county and State fairs. She has won a trip to the National Dairy Show, St. Louis, to the Oklahoma State Fair, and to the Arkansas State Fair.

Miss Romayne Tate, Greene County, during the 6 years of her membership possibly has been unexcelled in 4-H club competition in Arkansas. Gardening and canning have been her major demonstrations; she also has carried poultry, clothing, and room improvement. She has represented her county at State and regional meetings on 5 occasions. She completed 18 demonstrations which gave her a financial return of $1,242.21. Her exhibits at fairs, ranging from community to State, have given her a total of 70 ribbons and many cash prizes. Besides serving as president of her club for 4 years she was secretary one year, and now is secretary of the Greene County 4-H Club Council. During her 6 club years she has missed only one club meeting.

CONNECTICUT

Miss Pauline E. Grace, New Haven County, specialized in canning, and clothing club work during her 5-year membership in the 4-H club. She put on a demonstration in canning judging and won the county contest at the 4-H Fair. She was a member of the demonstration team which won the State championship. She has exhibited her canning, cooking, and sewing in both the county and the State, winning 37 prizes in all. Each year during the past 5 she has attended the short courses and senior conferences. At present she is leader of a 4-H cooking group, and has filled the office of secretary, vice president, and president.

Miss Helen Hulme, Litchfield County, has learned to do many useful things since joining a 4-H club in 1929. Her chief interests have been clothing, canning, food, and garden work. She enjoyed the short courses at Storrs, where she gained information along other lines. Her early ambition to lead a club of small girls has been realized, she now is leader of a club of 13 girls.

Mr. Karl Webster, Litchfield County, first undertook dairying work, but later specialized in poultry. He gave a demonstration at the county 4-H Fair, winning first place. He has exhibited his poultry and also has judged poultry at many fairs. He built a brooder house for 300 chicks. Last year he was chosen as a delegate to Camp Vail. He also went to Boston as a member of the State judging team in poultry. He has developed an egg and dressed-poultry route. He was secretary of his club for 2 years and now is local leader of a poultry club of nine boys.

Mr. Louis Zaicek, Windham County, has specialized in poultry work since enrolling in 4-H club work. He entered most of the contests which were held for poultry-club members. He has given demonstrations in making a mash hopper (Conn. type). Two years ago he was chosen a delegate to Camp Vail and also to the State short course. He has filled the office of local leader, secretary, and president of his club.

DELAWARE

Mr. Stinson Eastburn, New Castle County.

Miss Ruth Rust, Sussex County.

Mr. Edward Schabinger, Kent County.

Miss Alice F. Weldin, New Castle County.

FLORIDA

Miss Nellie Berry, Alachua County, chose sewing, poultry, canning, and room improvement as her 4-H club projects. She has represented her club in many demonstrations and judging contests, and has won four trips to the State short course. She filled the office of assistant leader 3 years, and has been vice president and president of her club.

Mr. D. C. Hanks, Escambia County, began club work in 1926, when he planted an acre of cotton. During the following years he carried corn, sweet-potatoes, Irish potatoes, peanuts, poultry, and farm-record work. He has been a member of the county poultry-judging team and also of the State short-course demonstration team. Each year since 1930 he has won a trip to short course. He has developed leadership by obtaining new members in his community, supervising projects, helping the boys to measure land, and to prepare exhibits for contests and conduct meetings. His club of 45 members has held first place in the county for 3 years. He has held the office of secretary, vice president, and president of his club, and this year he is president of the County Council of Boys' 4-H Clubs. He has given radio talks and attended club camp.

Miss Florence Hombroek, Escambia County, included sewing, poultry, canning, baking, and gardening in her club enterprises during the past 10 years. In her poultry work she has averaged 42 fowls per year. She has given demonstrations in canning and baking and also has been leader of the gardening club. She entered the county health contest. Through her club work she has won six trips to the State short course. She has filled the office of assistant leader, leader, secretary, and president.

Mr. Herman Youngblood, Okaloosa County, has been interested in cotton, cane, corn, peanuts, pigs, potatoes, and record keeping during the past 6 years. The first year he won first place with his cotton at the county fair. He has exhibited successfully at State and county fairs, winning trips to the 4-H club short course, the National Club Congress, and a scholarship to the University of Florida. On two occasions the annual farm tours included some of his project work. At present he is conducting several demonstrations for the county agent to include in a tour this summer. He has helped to obtain new members for his club and has held the office of secretary, treasurer, and president.

GEORGIA

Mr. Rufus Adams, Monroe County, has had many fine achievements in his pig, cotton, and corn work. He has exhibited successfully each year, winning prizes and trips, including three trips to the Southeastern Fair and a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress. He has given demonstrations and judged livestock at fairs many times. He has developed leadership by getting new members in his own community, and is assisting in the plan to have a permanent organized club in each community. Rufus has held the office of vice president of his club.

Mr. Edwin Arline, Decatur County, has been interested in poultry and the sow and litter project since 1931. He has given demonstrations on sanitary litter and has judged livestock. He has won trips to the club camp and the State short course. This year he selected poultry and has been studying the subject at the Coastal Plain Experiment Station. He has 250 broilers, 250 baby chicks, one brooder house, and a broiler house. His goal is 1,500 hens by December. He has been club reporter, leader of his club and of the County 4-H Club Council. Through his club work he won trips to the State short course and to club camp. He has received $205 for meat sold.

Miss Margaret Dempsey, Floyd County, began her 4-H club experiences 5 years ago when she enrolled in gardening, poultry, canning, clothing, cooking, home improvement, and flower culture. The dress made and worn in the style revue won for her a trip to Camp Wilkins. She also won in the State style revue and the demonstration contest, and was awarded a trip to the Southeastern Fair. She became leader, has held many offices in her club, put on demonstrations, and spoken on club work.

Miss Evelyn Sikes, Pierce County, specialized in sewing several years ago, when she joined a 4-H club. She has also included gardening, room improvement, turkey raising, and orchard work. She has made practical use of her knowledge of sewing, as she does most of her own, and helps her mother with the family sewing. She also has helped some of the club girls with their sewing problems, and has given demonstrations at their meetings. They are planning to build a club house in their community. She has occupied the office of president, reporter, and chairman of the clothing and program committees.

ILLINOIS

Miss Reta Mae Finley, Greene County, in her 7 years of club work has specialized in sewing, canning, baking, and meal planning. She has many times been a member of a demonstration team, has represented her club in judging contests, and held most of the offices in her club. This year she started a beginners' 4-H club.

Miss Helen Harrison, McHenry County, took clothing and food preservation, which she has carried each year for 7 years. Helen likes demonstrating and has served on many demonstration teams, during the last 2 years she has trained three demonstration teams. Her club has a glee club, and they have music at every meeting. She played in the State club orchestra. She has helped to organize other 4-H clubs and is now serving as local leader. As winner at the style show she was awarded a trip to the 4-H camp, she also won a trip to the National Club Congress. The offices of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer have been filled by her.

Mr. Ralph B. McKenzie, DeKalb County, specialized in pigs in 1926 and won the first ton litter in his county. Three years later he added sheep to his project. In six years his flock grew from 3 to 48. He then became interested in the beef calf "rate of gain" project and his calf placed second in a class of 30. Ralph has spent some time experimenting in grain breeding. He has exhibited and competed successfully at State and county fairs and has a number of "wins" to his credit. He won a trip to the National Club Congress in Chicago, and last year won first place in the county health contest. He has filled the offices of treasurer, secretary, and president of his club.

Mr. George Strout, La Salle County, enrolled in corn, poultry, baby beef, and health, and has carried the swine project every year since 1927. He has judged and demonstrated at county and State fairs. With prize money he bought a purebred Hampshire gilt that began a herd of registered Hampshires owned now in partnership with his father. He has started a registered Hereford herd, and has a flock of 100 laying hens. He has improved the quality of his corn and has changed some of his methods of farming. He has the reputation of finishing every project he starts. He stood second in the health contest and was twice adjudged State swine champion and county project champion. He also won the county baby-beef championship and has been delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress twice. He has been president, secretary, vice president, and local leader of his club.

INDIANA

Mr. Damon Catron, Howard County, became interested 6 years ago in pig and corn projects. He has produced two ton-litters. He now has a herd of 10 registered pig-type Poland China sows. In 1932 his pig-club work won for him a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, the next year he placed first in the activity contest for junior leaders, and last year he won a scholarship for judging livestock at the State fair. In addition to being a member of the county demonstration team he has been a member of the livestock judging team four times. During his 4 years as junior leader he has demonstrated marked ability. He is now leader of his 4-H club. He has given talks on club work at the Round-Up, the Kiwanis Club, and the Rotary Club. He has been treasurer, secretary, and president of his club.

Miss Mildred Flentke, Vanderburgh County, since 1929 has been active in baking, clothing, health, food preparation, and leadership work. She has taken part in three county dress revues and has judged and demonstrated at county fairs, winning a number of "firsts." Mildred has given many talks on 4-H club work, won trips to the State fair and the Junior Leadership Camp, and has attended the Round-Up at the university several times. She has held nearly every office in her club, and in her leadership work has supervised 22 girls, 20 of whom completed the work.

Miss Helen Morris, Vigo County, has completed 21 projects in the past 9 years, including clothing, baking, room improvement, food preparation, canning, and leadership. Helen has exhibited at fairs during the past 5 years, and has represented her club in many demonstrations and judging contests. She has written articles and given talks on 4-H club work, and has a splendid record in leadership, which includes the supervision of 44 girls, 42 of whom completed the work. She has been awarded trips to the National 4-H Club Congress, the International Dairy Show, the State Junior-Leader Conference, and won the Home Economics Club scholarship.

Mr. Loral W. Sears, Madison County, started his 4-H club work with Chester White hogs in 1926, and later added corn, potatoes, lambs, beef calf, and colt projects. He has been a consistent winner at the Indiana State and county fairs, has had considerable experience and success in livestock judging and demonstrations. This year Loral was named winner of the Indiana 4-H Club Achievement Contest, representing the State in the national contest because of his record in club work and service to his community. His industry and activity have been shown in his 4 years of leadership. He was awarded a trip to the National Club Congress in 1933, to the Purdue Round-Up, and a scholarship to Purdue University. He has been president of the County Junior Leaders' Council for 2 years, and has held most of the offices in his club.

IOWA

Mr. Roy Lewis Cruzen, Mahaska County, had his first experience in club work feeding a lamb which had to be raised on a bottle. His father bought him a purebred Shropshire ewe with twins. He has shown sheep each year successfully. He bought a purebred Shorthorn white calf on which he won "first" in the State, and also at the International, making a profit of $460 in premiums and sale. As a result of his club work he now has 65 registered sheep and 6 head of registered shorthorns from which he and his brother have raised their show stock. This year in appreciation of what his father did for him and to stimulate interest in Shropshire sheep, he is offering a registered ewe lamb to the county champion Shropshire exhibitor. He has judged livestock many times. In 1933 he was Iowa champion lamb-club member and last year he won the title of Iowa champion livestock member. He has been a delegate to the National Club Congress and has attended the State convention seven times. During his club project he has fed 8 calves and 20 sheep. The gross receipts of his work are over $1,500, not including his sale of stock and the flock he has developed. He has filled all the offices in his club.

Miss Betty Loveland, Black Hawk County, has carried on canning, clothing, bread, and room improvement for 5 years. She has represented her club in both judging and demonstration contests, and has entered the health contest each year. She has been awarded trips to the State fair and to the National Club Congress.

Miss Helen Stadlman, Sac County, joined a 4-H club in 1929, when she undertook baking, clothing, and room improvement. She has represented her club in demonstrations at local and county fairs. Helen has entered four health contests. In 1934 she was a delegate to the National Club Congress. She has filled the offices of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and news reporter.

Mr. Ed Wearin, Mills County, has had 5 years' experience in baby-beef, pig, and colt raising. He has exhibited successfully, winning calf and hog showmanship at the County fair, and reserve grand champion and steer showman at the Ak-Sar-Ben last year. He has participated in many judging contests - State, county, and State short course. In the health contests he has won county champion at the Iowa State Fair. He has attended National Club Congress. He has been president and vice president of his club.

KANSAS

Miss Violet Bauer, Clay County, became interested in 4-H club work 8 years ago, and during 4 years of this period she has been a junior leader. Her projects have included clothing, gardening, canning, baking, and room improvement. In addition to being a member of numerous judging teams, she has given 25 public demonstrations and made 61 exhibits at State and county fairs. During her 8 club years she has completed 24 projects which have netted her $1,287.55. She has won trips to the State Round-Up, Hutchinson Fair, and Wichita Stock Show. She has occupied every office in her club.

Mr. Harbaugh Beeley, Comanche County, undertook leadership, baby beef, and gardening as his first club work in 1924. Harbaugh has been a member of judging teams many times, and has exhibited successfully at a number of county and State events. In 1932 he was selected as a delegate to the National Club Congress. He was president of his club for 3 years, and junior leader 4 years. This year he is president of the Junior Farm Bureau, and is active in a wide variety of community and county activities. He has won a trip to the leadership camp and to the State Round-Up.

Miss Ellen Brownlee, Reno County, since enrolling in club work 6 years ago has carried clothing, baking, leadership, room improvement, poultry, and canning. In 1931 she was county style-revue champion; a member of the State clothing judging team in 1932, when she was awarded a gold watch and a trip to the National Club Congress. Last year she organized a new club 12 miles from her home in addition to the leadership work which she has carried in her own club during the past 4 years. She not only has been president, vice president, treasurer, recreation leader, and secretary of her club, but superintendent of the canning department at the county 4-H fair for the past 2 years. She entered the local health contest. She has attended the State Round-Up.

Mr. Kenneth Johnson, Lyon County, selected beef, swine, garden, corn, and dairying as his club projects 9 years ago. He won the county health contest two years. Kenneth has been a member of four judging teams, has been active in giving public demonstrations, and has competed successfully in many State and county exhibits. During his 9 years of club work he has completed 45 projects and earned a net profit of $2,360.92. Through his club work he has won trips to the State Round-Up, State fair, two trips to the American Royal at Kansas City, and a trip to the Kansas Fat-Stock Show. He has acted as local leader for 4 years, is a member of the county 4-H Council, and has filled every office in his club.

KENTUCKY

Miss Dixie Abram, Jefferson County, during her 5-year membership in a 4-H club has completed projects in clothing, foods, canning, and room improvement. Dixie has exhibited successfully in county, State, and national competitions, has been declared State food champion and also champion in the canning judging contest, winning two trips to the National Club Congress. She also has been county champion in the style dress revue. She has won 84 ribbons, 4 trips to Junior Week, has held the offices of secretary, vice president, president, and has been assistant leader in foods, canning and clothing, and also president of the county organization.

Mr. Earl V. Davis, Logan County, in his 5 years of club work has developed a herd of 5 registered cows and heifers and also has raised swine and potatoes. He has been a member of the county champion dairy-cattle judging team and also of the champion demonstration team. He has competed successfully at the county fairs and has a long list of "wins" to his credit. He has attended all community, club, and project group meetings held during the past 5 years. He has been assistant leader of the club, has attended 5 club camps, and has filled the offices of president of his club and vice president of the County Association of 4-H Clubs.

Mr. Burch Merritt, Graves County, joined a 4-H club 4 years ago, specializing in poultry. Burch served as president of his club for 3 years, vice president 1 year, and local leader 3 years. His club completed 100 percent and was the champion club of the county. He has been a member of the county champion demonstration team and poultry project captain. He has attended Junior Week and 4-H Club Camp. He has been president of the County Association of 4-H Clubs.

Miss Mamie E. Hart, Garrard County, has to her credit 6 years of club work in clothing, canning, foods, and room improvement. She has been a member of the county champion demonstration team. She was the State and national champion judge of canned foods in 1933, and won State championship in canning in 1934, also winning two trips to the National Club Congress. She has won 4 trips to Junior Week and 5 trips to club camp. She was secretary of her club for 3 years and president 1 year. She also has been secretary of the County Association of 4-H clubs.

LOUISIANA

Miss Helen N. Boone, Morehouse County, enrolled in poultry, room-improvement, clothing, and food preservation work when she joined her 4-H club. She has represented her club by giving demonstrations in canning, clothing, and baking, and also in the bread judging contests. She was awarded a trip to the State Short Course. She has occupied the offices of secretary, vice president, and president.

Mr. Dalton Gandy, Claiborne County, has specialized in calf club work during the past 5 years. Each year he has participated in dairy judging, and was a member of the demonstration team for 2 years. He has won a trip to the State Short Course each year for the past 4 years. He has been club reporter, vice president, and president of his club, and president of the parish 4-H clubs.

Mr. Clyde Hoyt, Rapides County, has been interested in dairying, corn, pigs, cotton, and potatoes since joining a 4-H club. He has exhibited successfully, and has participated in dairy and general livestock judging, winning trips to the Memphis Livestock Show, and to the Kansas City Livestock Show. He has been vice president, president, and executive member of his club.

Miss Ava O. Tullos, Grant County, chose gardening, clothing, food preservation, and room improvement as her club projects. She has given parish and State demonstrations during the past 7 years and has participated in judging bread, poultry, and in meat identification. She was awarded a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress. She has filled the offices of president, vice president, treasurer, and secretary of her club, as well as being president, secretary, and treasurer of the parish 4-H Council.

MAINE

Miss M. Lydia Farnham, Kennebec County, is in her sixth year of club work, having specialized in cooking, sewing, and homemaking. She has given public demonstrations in table setting and has exhibited her projects successfully at various fairs and contests, winning 41 prize ribbons. She has competed in the style dress revue, won the junior sewing championship, and served on the club demonstration team. She has attended 4-H camp and has filled the offices of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of her club.

Mr. Clifford M. Hilton, York County, first undertook gardening, later adding poultry and canning to his project. He has exhibited at the county contest each year. Several of his exhibits were sent to the State Seed Show. One year he canned one thousand pints, winning second prize on this exhibit. His club has finished 100 percent each year and one year won the plaque. As a result of his club work he was chosen delegate to the Eastern States Exposition. He has been assistant leader, treasurer, vice president, and secretary of his club, as well as local leader for 4 years.

Miss Aino Niskanen, Oxford County, began club work in 1928, when she enrolled in sewing and canning. She has been a member of a demonstration team which has given many public demonstrations. In 1932 she was chosen cooking and housekeeping champion in Oxford County. She has been song leader each year, and has filled the offices of vice president, and secretary. She won a trip to the State camp in 1933.

Mr. Owen B. Paul, Waldo County, has specialized in gardening during the past 9 years. He has exhibited successfully at many contests, and has a long list of winnings to his credit. He has attended State Short Course three times. He was officer of his club for 3 years. He has been a member of a demonstration and judging team.

MARYLAND

Mr. Frank McFarland, Allegany County, selected poultry as his project in 1932 and later added Holstein heifer and potatoes. At the Cumberland Fair he won second prize in the poultry judging contest and placed second in Guernseys at the State Fair. He has been a member of both the County dairy judging team and the poultry judging team. He has attended club week and is an All Star member. He has been an active member of the recreational committee, and treasurer of the 4-H Boys' Farm Federation. He now owns 112 chickens and 600 baby chicks.

Miss Lois Molyneaux, Montgomery County, has completed 6 years of club work in clothing, canning, and baking. She has served meals at home and in her club. She has assisted in the organization of recreational activities in her 4-H club. Lois is an All Star and an active member of the 4-H Senior Council. Twice she has attended the Rural Youth Conference in West Virginia. In 1932 and 1933 she was president of the 4-H Girls' Federation and also has been president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of her club.

Miss Gladys Perdue, Worcester County, has been interested in clothing, gardening, canning, and room furnishing projects since 1929. She developed leadership by obtaining and helping new members. She has always kept excellent records. Gladys has made practical use of her knowledge of meal preparation and the care of the home to obtain necessary school funds. One year she organized a 4-H group of 10 girls in a canning project. She has attended club week, county camp, and has been assistant camp director. She has filled the offices of secretary and president of her club. This year she is local leader of eight girls.

Mr. George C. Stauffer, Frederick County, has had dairy-club work as his club experience since 1925, starting with a Guernsey calf. In 1928 he added 1 acre of corn. He has exhibited successfully each year at county and State fairs and has a long list of "firsts" to his credit. He has been a member of the county and State cattle and poultry judging teams. Last year he won a silver cup when on the cattle judging team. In 1932 he won a trip to the Eastern States Exposition, where he received a silver medal, being second high individual. He has filled the offices of secretary and treasurer of his club and has been vice president of the County Boys' and Girls' Senior Council. He now owns 10 head of Guernsey cattle, a 2-year old Percheron mare, and 40 chickens.

MASSACHUSETTS

Mr. Alfred J. Cipolla, Essex County, has specialized in poultry and gardening. He has given demonstrations in egg grading and candling many times. He judged poultry at the Boston Poultry Show for 3 years; at the Brockton Fair, 2 years; Interscholastic Contest at Massachusetts State, 2 years; Eastern States Exposition, 3 years; and Worcester Fair, 1 year. He was awarded a trip to State Camp and to Camp Vail. He has been president, vice president, and treasurer of his club.

Mr. John L. Comara, Dukes County, chose gardening and handicraft as his 4-H club projects. He has represented his club in demonstrations and judging contests. Through his club work he won trips to the State camp and to the State fair. He has been vice president of the Service Club.

Miss Dorothy Koehler, Franklin County, chose clothing, canning, and baking for her 4-H club work. She makes most of her own clothes. She has represented her club successfully in judging and demonstrations, won trips to the State and county camp, and filled all the offices of her club.

Miss Nellie Kut, Bristol County, carried canning, clothing, forestry, and home furnishing as her club enterprises. She has been awarded trips to the county camp and also the State camp. She has filled the office of leader for 2 years, and also has been secretary and president of her club.

MICHIGAN

Mr. Orlo H. Carlson, Gogebic County, joined a 4-H club in 1929 choosing gardening and potato-club work. Part of the time his potato plot was a mile from his home which necessitated working under difficulties; later, however, he was able to procure a plot near his garden. He has been a member of the State crops demonstration team, and successful in exhibiting his vegetables. As State garden honor member he was awarded a scholarship to the State college. He has won a trip to the club camp, to State fair, and to the National Club Congress. He has given quite a number of talks on 4-H club work, was secretary of his local club for 4 years, served as assistant leader and later as local leader. He is now vice president of the 4-H Service Club.

Miss Amy Jean Holmblade, Muskegon County, has completed 13 projects in canning, clothing, and food preparation in her 10 years of club work. She has been active in demonstration and judging work and has been awarded trips to club camp, State fair, Club Week, and National Club Congress. She has filled all the offices of her club.

Miss Jeanne E. Mann, Calhoun County, selected clothing, food preservation, and canning as her club work and later, when she decided to add food preparation, she found it necessary to join a food-preparation club 10 miles away. She was successful in her canning, clothing, and food-preparation demonstrations and in judging and has been awarded prizes and trips. She has been chosen style delegate to both county and State fairs, and has won a scholarship to the State college and a trip to the National Club Congress. She organized and led a food-preparation club in her own community where there never had been one; the club finished 100 percent, with 50 percent honor members and 1 delegate to Club Week. She has led the county clothing club. She has been secretary of the County 4-H Club Council.

Mr. Stephen Wing, Antrim County, has specialized in potato growing for the past 7 years. He has competed successfully each year with his exhibits of Rural Russets, Irish Cobblers, and Katahdons, and has a long list of winnings to his credit, including three scholarships and a gold watch. He has been a delegate to the National Club Congress. Through his club work he has earned his clothes and spending money. This year he is raising 2 acres of potatoes. He is assisting the leader in potato-club work. He has filled the offices of secretary, treasurer, and vice president of his club.

MINNESOTA

Miss Lila Block, Cottonwood County, has completed projects in canning, baking, clothing, health, room improvement, and junior leadership since 1926. She has been very active in both team and individual demonstrations, and has exhibited successfully at State and county contests, winning several trips to the State fair. Last year she won first prize in bread making. Lila says she has found her clothing project quite a practical investment. The play given by her club won the county contest and was presented at Club Week in St. Paul, where the club placed first in competition with 12 counties. She now is coaching a play for a contest in her county. Last year she won a trip to the National Club Congress. She has been president of her club for 2 years.

Mr. Earl Draheim, Renville County, feels that he has gained considerable experience in his 8 years of club work. He started with a dairy calf and later added purebred gilt, fat barrow, lamb, beef-calf, and health projects. Last year he won the award in the meat-animal production contest. He has represented his county four times in exhibiting at the State Fair; last year he was second individual in the State contest. He has fed three beef calves. In 1934 he organized a new club of 20 active members. He has been successful in his leadership work, has been vice president and president of his club, and president of the leadership council. He now has a herd of 3 cows and 2 heifers.

Mr. Adrian Ries, Winona County, has devoted most of his 10 years of club work to the dairy-calf project although he also has carried dairy judging, alfalfa, leadership, and farm accounting. He has been a member of the dairy judging team, has attended State 4-H Short Course, has won reserve grand champion dairy exhibit, was selected State champion dairy-club member, and has won two trips to the National Dairy Show at St. Louis, Mo. In 1930 he won a prize for his leadership work. Adrian and his brother own jointly a herd of purebred Brown Swiss. He has entered county and local health contests. He has been president of three clubs, and has filled the offices of vice president and secretary.

Miss Edna Tan, Carlton County, was the only girl in the calf club during the first 4 years of her membership; the remaining 4 years she carried sewing, baking, canning, and leadership work also. Each year for 5 years she has placed high at the county contest and won a gold medal in 1930 for champion calf. She gave individual demonstrations in cake making in 1933, winning State championship. She has entered the canning judging contest at the State fair, has attended Junior Short Course, and has won several educational trips through her club work. Edna says her junior leadership experience has helped her in conducting meetings, organizing committees, managing tours, judging exhibits, and giving talks. She filled the office of secretary of the County 4-H Federation for 2 years. In 1932 she was chosen champion county junior leader. She has been president of her club for 2 years.

MISSISSIPPI

Miss Katheryn Ford, Marion County, has been active in canning, poultry, gardening, and food preservation since she became a 4-H club member. She has prepared balanced and palatable lunches for school children, and has demonstrated to some of the mothers that lunches can be made nutritious, balanced, and appetizing with a little planning and care. In addition to canning fruits and vegetables she has been drying fruits and vegetables as another method of food preservation. She has entered clothing, food, and egg-judging contests. She was a delegate to the State Club Congress in 1933 and 1934. She has been secretary, vice president of her club, and for 2 years was clothing leader.

Mr. George Page, Copiah County, has done club work in dairying, cotton, corn, and cabbage for 6 years, and also has given special attention to keeping records. He has given demonstrations in testing eggs, has been captain of his club twice and president for 3 years. Through his leadership work he won a trip to the National Club Congress. He also attended club camp and the State Club Congress. He has won first prize on his cotton exhibit and first place in the county crop judging contest. Because of his interest in farm work his mother has given him 40 acres of land. He now is leader of his club.

Miss Ruth Sanders, Scott County, has made practical use of her 7 years of 4-H club work in home improvement, poultry, and dairying. She has improved her room by painting the woodwork, furniture, floors, etc., and through her dairying work has financed her clothes and personal expenses. She has given demonstrations in bread making and in butter making. She has assisted her club leader and has helped some of the club girls with their records for the State Club Congress. Ruth says that club work was the real promoter of improved poultry in her community. She has occupied all the offices of her club.

Mr. French Woods, Marshall County, has been interested in dairying, pigs, corn, cotton, and terracing since becoming a 4-H club member. He has demonstrated many of the improved practices which he has learned in club work, such as terracing, pruning, and spraying. In competitions at local and State fairs he has a number of "wins" to his credit. Pruning and spraying the orchard also are included in his projects. He has been selected delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress, and also has attended State short course each year. He now has a herd of 13 purebred Jerseys. He has several times been president of his club as well as of the County Council.

MISSOURI

Mr. Harry Boermann, Atchison County, has had 8 years of successful experience as a member of 4-H livestock clubs, having completed 7 years' work with baby beefes, 2 years in sow and litter projects, and 1 year with a ewe and lamb club. He also has done outstanding work in health and first aid. He has been a member of the livestock judging team. He gave a splendid talk on producing baby beef at a county-wide conference of livestock and animal husbandry specialists, last winter. In 1932 he was declared the county's healthiest boy. He was president of his club for 2 years.

Mr. Ervin Brune, Jackson County, in his 5 years of club work has successfully completed 14 projects, working with baby beef, sow and litter, poultry, and health. He has won many cash prizes and made a net profit of $940. He has fed 1 Hereford and 4 Angus calves and showed 3 of them at the American Royal, exhibited his poultry and pigs each year at State and county fairs, won grand championship in agricultural demonstrations at State Round-Up, was chosen State champion pig club boy in 1932 and awarded a trip to the National Club Congress; the same year he won a gold watch and a gold medal. He has filled the offices of president, secretary, song leader, and reporter and at present is president of the sow and litter club.

Miss Opal Caldwell, Cass County, has been a member of eight 4-H clubs and a leader of three, completing all outlined work creditably and proving herself a successful and unselfish volunteer leader. Among her projects have been meal planning, health, and clothing-club work. For exhibits, demonstrations, and judging contests Opal has won many honors in community, county, and State. She was a delegate to the American Royal Livestock Show in 1933. She has spoken on 4-H club work at community meetings, farm bureau groups, civic and professional clubs. She has served as president and song leader of three clubs.

Miss Frieda Kneib, Buchanan County, has covered a wide range of home economics work during her 10 years' experience as a 4-H club member. Among her projects have been garment making, food preservation, baking, young housekeepers' club, more attractive homes, and the hot-lunch club. She has been an entrant in the county health contest. Last year, as Missouri's outstanding club girl, she represented her State at the National 4-H Congress. She represented the State's 4-H clubs on the program of the Missouri Farm Bureau banquet last year. She has been president, vice president, secretary, reporter, and song leader.

NEBRASKA

Mr. Mervin Aegerter, Seward County, has raised baby beeves, swine, and sheep since 1930. He has entered judging contests and county and State fairs, and is well respected by cattlemen as a good livestock judge. Showing champion animals at county, State, and national shows has become a habit with this young man. He has attended the State 4-H Club Week twice, and has been a delegate to the National Club Congress. In addition to being a community leader he has been president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and reporter for his club.

Miss Doris Gray, Otoe County, chose cooking, clothing, room improvement, health, and leadership as her club enterprises. She was member of the 1934 State champion home-economics demonstration team, has won a trip to the State fair three times, and to Club Week three times. She has entered local and county health contests and has filled the offices of president, vice president, secretary, and news reporter.

Mr. Francis Hutchinson, Lancaster County, has been a club member for 10 years. He has a small dairy herd of his own and some purebred sheep. He is very careful to select high-grade and purebred livestock. In all he has completed 42 projects. He has been a local leader for 6 years.

Miss Ruth Sparks, Cheyenne County, started 4-H club work in 1926. Among her projects are room improvement, clothing, cooking, canning and hot lunch. She has competed in hot-lunch, cooking, clothing, room-improvement, and canning contests, and has represented her club many times in demonstrations and in judging. She has entered health contests three times. She is leading a garden club at the present time and has held all the offices of her club.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Miss Rachel Moore, Hillsboro County, has been active during the past 9 years in canning, clothing, and health club work. She makes practical use of her knowledge in sewing by making most of her own clothes. She has given demonstrations in canning, use of the pressure cooker, and sewing. She was a delegate to Camp Carlisle for three years, has attended Round-Up and the Leadership Institute, and this year as her leadership project she has a club of 11 girls who are taking clothing work.

Mr. W. Raymond Nelson, Sullivan County, joined a 4-H club in 1929 choosing poultry, leadership, forestry. He has been member of both demonstration and judging teams, has entered the local health contest, and has been a delegate to Camp Vail. He has been leader for the past 2 years and is now president of the county organization of junior leaders. He has attended State camp and the leadership institute.

Mr. Douglas Scammon, Rockingham County, has had 10 years of club experience, starting with gardening. Later he joined a dairy project with a Holstein cow, which he sold a year later and bought a purebred Ayrshire cow; he now has a herd of five which he considers a good foundation. This is his second year as local leader. He has been a delegate to both Camp Carlisle and Camp Vail. He is a member of the county advisory council. Last year he attended Leadership Institute, where he learned much that was of value last winter in his work of forming a club for older members in his part of the county. This is one of the many Youth Clubs which have been formed through the State. He has been vice president and president of his club.

Miss Ruth E. Woodman, Rockingham County, has specialized in clothing, canning, and leadership work during the past 8 years. During the last 4 years she has assisted in the leadership of the County Camp. She has been a 4-H club delegate to Camp Merrovista - American Youth Foundation, and also to Camp Vail. She is now a club leader. She entered the clothing judging contest at Camp Vail. She has been local leader, secretary, and treasurer of her club.

NEW JERSEY

Mr. Elmer H. Mixner, Cumberland County, feels that perhaps he would not have had the interest in dairy cows or had the herd of Holsteins which he has today if he had not joined a 4-H club 8 years ago. He has exhibited his stock many times, winning many awards and over $200 in cash prizes. He has been a member of the judging team and has been chosen to speak on club work. The profit from his cows has been used toward maintaining the farm, buying necessities, new stock bulls; he also paid for a 12-week short course in dairy farming at Rutgers University. Elmer thoroughly enjoys his work in dairying.

Mr. Arthur Roehringer, Jr., Middlesex County, joined the 4-H gardening club in 1928, and in 1929 he became interested in poultry. He has built up a retail trade for eggs and dressed poultry, he also sells dressed broilers to butchers. Last year he housed 501 pullets in addition to the 348 hens he had left after culling. Of these 70 percent now are laying and have done very well all through the winter. He was the first person in Middlesex County to sell eggs in 4-H cartons which came out 2 years ago. He has been a member of the county judging team for the past 4 years, has competed successfully and won many prizes on his chickens. His goal is to have 1,500 layers in a few years. He has occupied the offices of president, vice president, secretary, and has been on a number of club committees.

Miss Agnes Toth, Warren County, has been doing sewing, cooking, and dairying for the past 4 years, as an active member of two clubs. As a member of the dairy club she exhibited her heifer at the fair, placing second. She has competed in a county judging contest. She is an assistant local leader and has given talks on club work.

Miss Mariana T. White, Cape May County, was a charter member of her club 6 years ago, since then she has specialized in sewing, room improvement, and cooking. She has competed successfully at the county and State fairs, taken part in a result demonstration of cooking, and served a meal at the State fair. In 1932 she was requested to be assistant leader of the local Junior 4-H Club; later, when the regular leader moved away, she became the leader of 16 girls. In 1934 she organized a club in cooking and sewing. She has been awarded trips to the club camp, State fair, and has held the offices of president, vice president, and secretary of her club.

NEW MEXICO

Miss Eulah Marshall, Chaves County, selected sewing as her club project in 1929. Her first year's sewing placed first and was then sent to the State college, where it won third place in the State. Later she added canning, baking, and cooking and has been equally successful in her exhibits of these enterprises. She was a member of the baking demonstration team which won first in the county, entitling the team to a trip to the State college, where it placed first again and won grand-champion prize - a gold medal and a trip to the Denver Stock Show. Each year since taking canning she has competed successfully at the Eastern New Mexico State Fair. In 1932 she was assistant leader in sewing and in 1934 a leader in cooking.

Miss Alma Owen, Colfax County, joined a 4-H club 6 years ago choosing canning, baking, sewing, and home improvement, to which she added baking last year. She placed first in the county canning demonstration, which entitled her to a trip to Las Cruces. There she won first place in foods and grand championship in the home-economics section of State demonstration-team contest. She has been a member of the canning and home-improvement demonstration teams. She has attended club camp twice, was local leader for 2 years, and served as president and vice president of her club.

NEW YORK

Mr. Wilbur S. Bull, Jefferson County, specialized in dairying for the past 10 years. At the county fair in both 1927 and 1928 he gave a demonstration on picking out a dairy cow. He has done considerable dairy-cattle judging in both county and State and also at the Eastern States Exposition and in the National Dairy Exposition Judging Contest. He has been awarded trips to the Eastern States Exposition, to the State Fair nine times, and to the National Club Congress. He has filled all the offices of his club.

Mr. Arthur E. Merle, Jr., Wyoming County, selected poultry, dairying, forestry, and potato raising in 1929 when he joined his club. He has represented his club in judging and in demonstrations at county and State contests many times. His financial returns from club work have brought him a profit of $500. Arthur has been awarded trips to the State Fair, Adirondack Forestry Tour, and the Boston Poultry Show. The offices of secretary and vice president have been filled by him.

Miss Dorothy Kutschback, Chenango County, has had 10 years' experience in poultry, clothing, gardening, room improvement, and canning. She has given demonstrations in poultry judging, a model club meeting at the school fair and demonstrations in bed making, quilting, and comforter tying at the State Fair. She has participated in county, State, and national poultry-judging contests. She was awarded trips to the National Poultry Judging Contest of New York in 1932 and 1934; and has attended the State Club Congress and the National Club Congress. She has been secretary and president of her club.

Miss Jean Shippey, Rensselaer County, has specialized in baking, gardening, and clothing during the past 6 years. She has participated in judging at six county fairs and at the Club Congress in Ithaca three times. Last year she was awarded a trip to the National Club Congress as State representative in the national style revue. In her club she has been secretary and president, and has been secretary and president of the County Council, treasurer and president of the Older Girls' Club, and an executive member of the State Council.

NORTH CAROLINA

Miss Ruth Kiker, Anson County, has had 10 years' experience in poultry, room-improvement, food-preservation, health, and clothing work. Ruth has given demonstrations in room improvement at community and State fairs, and demonstrations in food preservation, clothing, and poultry at county and State fairs. Each year during the past 4 years she entered the health contests. She has been president and secretary of her club, and leader 1 year each in foods, clothing, and poultry. Ruth has been historian in the State Federation of 4-H Clubs. She has attended the State 4-H Short Course.

Miss Dorothy Lloyd, Durham County, selected sewing, health, room improvement, poultry, and gardening as her projects in joining her 4-H club. Through her garden work she has been instrumental in changing the family diet. By her club work she earned money for her education. She has given demonstrations in sewing, use of machine attachments, posture, curb-market table, and has put on four special demonstrations. She has been awarded trips to the County Camp, to the State Short Course four times, and a trip to the National Club Congress. She has filled the offices of vice president and president of her club, and president of the County Council.

Mr. Charles Palmer, Cleveland County, has specialized in cotton, swine, and poultry. He participated in poultry and livestock judging contests in both county and State. He entered three health contests and won the titles of County Health King and State Health King. He has won a trip to the State Camp and three trips to the State Short Course. He has been local leader, secretary, and vice president of his club; president of the County Council; and vice president of the State 4-H Council.

Mr. William E. Pollock, Jones County, in 1929 selected corn, pigs, and tobacco as his projects. His father gave him two pigs to start with. Each year he has fed out a number of pigs some of which have been slaughtered each year for home use. He built a self-feeder which cost little and saved much time. Twice he has been chosen as delegate to attend the Recreation School in Trenton, and he has attended county camps and 4-H Short Course. William has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club, and twice has been president of the County Federation of 4-H Clubs.

NORTH DAKOTA

Mr. Fred Elliott, Pembina County, joined a sheep club in 1927, and later added beef and corn projects. He has represented his club in judging and demonstration work a number of times. He was awarded two trips to the State Achievement Institute. He has been news reporter, vice president, and president of his club, and secretary of the State 4-H organization.

Miss Catherine McCormack, Ward County, selected canning, food preservation, and clothing as her club enterprises in 1929. She has been active in judging and demonstration work, winning first place in the county on foods in both judging and demonstrations. She was awarded a trip to the State Achievement Institute at Fargo and to the National Club Congress. She has filled the offices of secretary and president of her club, and was secretary of the county 4-H clubs in 1933.

Miss Mary Jane Phelps, Walsh County, has specialized in clothing during the past 4 years. She has been a delegate to the State Institute three times, and to the National 4-H Institute once. She has occupied the offices of treasurer, secretary, and president of her club and is now president of the State 4-H club organization.

Mr. Marvin Roth, Kidder County, has specialized in baby-beef club work since joining his 4-H club. He has given demonstrations at club meetings in trimming hoofs and in curling, and also has participated in county judging contests at Fargo. Through his work he has won 5 trips to the Achievement Institute, and 2 trips to the State fair.

OHIO

Miss Elva Corell, Hamilton County, enrolled in room-improvement, clothing, and flower-garden work in 1926. In her flower-garden work she has replanted shrubs, set out 50 shrub cuttings, grown 8 new annuals, and made 200 shrub cuttings. Each year she has made several new dresses, undergarments, repaired clothing and this year a complete outfit, three dresses and undergarments.

Mr. William H. Laybourne, Clark County, has specialized in beef and corn club work since 1926. He has given demonstrations at local club, grange, and community meetings. William entered the health contest 3 years. He filled the office of both president and secretary for 3 years.

Miss Mary McClelland, Knox County, has had 10 years' experience in baking, clothing, canning, and raising lambs. Mary has given many demonstrations in clothing and food work. She has occupied the offices of assistant leader, secretary, news reporter, vice president, president, and also has been recreational leader 3 years. She was awarded a trip to the Ohio Club Congress.

Mr. Chester McGrew, Portage County, joined the dairy club in 1926 and has carried the project through and developed a small herd. He has kept his cow records carefully. Chester has represented his club in judging and demonstration contests. He follows the health and food rules. He has won a trip to the district camp and to the Ohio Club Congress. In addition to filling all the offices of his club he has been recreation leader.

OKLAHOMA

Mr. Allen Goodbary, Lincoln County, has had experience in poultry, dairying, cotton, farm engineering, and sorghum in the last 5 years. He completed 3 miles of terraces to check soil erosion. He has exhibited successfully and represented his club in judging and demonstrations each year during the last 5 years. He has assisted the county agents in organizing clubs in his own and adjoining communities, has had charge of the 4-H exhibit at the State fair, and has been supervisor of the county camp for the past 2 years. He attended the National Farmers Union Convention in South Dakota.

Mr. Viley Johnson, Pittsburg County, has carried poultry, gardening, horticulture, forestry, sweetpotatoes, and Irish potatoes since 1928. Viley has made 40 public demonstrations in dairying, poultry, horticulture, and agricultural engineering. He has entered 16 judging contests and in several years placed first in horticulture and dairy judging. His financial gross profits, covering a 7-year period, amount to $1,513.31. He has assisted his agent in many ways. He has filled the offices of local leader, poultry captain, vice president, and president of his club, in addition to being president and vice president of the county federation. He has been a delegate to the National Club Congress.

Miss Juliet Johnstone, Comanche County, has completed and reported on 36 projects during her 4-H club membership. She has entered 16 judging contests, and placed first in one State dairy judging in 1932. She has exhibited at 21 county, State, and national fairs, having exhibited the national-champion dairy animal in 1930 and 1931, and placed first in silk and wool dresses in Oklahoma City in 1932 and 1933. As State health champion she represented Oklahoma girls in the National Health Contest in 1933. Juliet has been awarded trips to the State Round-Up, National Dairy Congress at St. Louis, American Royal Livestock Show at Kansas City, National Club Congress, and National Farmers' Union Convention in South Dakota. She has held all the offices in her club.

Miss Frances M. Leech, Kay County, has had 7 years' experience in poultry, garden, pig, calf, canning, clothing, baking, and room-improvement work. She has given 19 public demonstrations in her various club enterprises, and has entered 12 judging contests, including the reserve champion team contest in meat judging and identification at the National 4-H Club Congress in 1934. Last year she exhibited a calf at the Fat-Stock Show in Oklahoma City. She won the county style-show championship last year, and also the title of Northwest district champion canning-club girl - she canned 350 quarts. She has been a delegate to the National Club Congress. She has occupied the offices of local leader, secretary, and president of her club.

PENNSYLVANIA

Miss Ruth Coughlin, Erie County, started her 4-H club work in 1928 by selecting clothing, room improvement, nutrition, and health as her enterprises. She has exhibited her projects successfully many times, has been a member of judging teams in both local and county judging contests. Ruth has served as a local leader in all lines of club work in which she has been active. She has attended county camp and has been selected twice as the most outstanding club girl in Erie County. She has been vice president of her club, and was president for 2 years.

Mr. Earl J. Harris, Fayette County, first undertook club work in 1923, choosing as his projects, pig, sheep, poultry, sweet corn, and tomatoes, in which he has consistently placed high. He has participated in poultry judging at State and county contests. He has attended leadership training school at State college, State club week, and county club camp several times. He has served as local leader, president of the county 4-H Club Council, and editor of the Fayette 4-H Flashes, and has filled the office of president of the County Young People's Club which he helped to organize.

Miss Marian Ludwig, Schuylkill County, has carried six projects in agriculture and home economics since 1924: Clothing, pig, capon, nutrition, health, and cantaloups. She has placed first in many of the round-ups. Marian has attended the leadership-training school at the State college, judged garments and food, served as local leader in clothing-club work, and always has attended the county round-up. She has filled the offices of president, secretary, treasurer, and song leader.

Mr. Charles F. Schultz, Jr., Northampton County, since enrolling in club work in 1927, has carried sweet corn, potatoes, lambs, pig feeding, and baby beef, which he found both interesting and educational. Charles has competed successfully in State and county fairs and has been a member of the county livestock judging team, being highest scoring individual last year at the State club week. In 1934 he won first and grand champion on his potatoes. He has assisted in organizing clubs and has taken active personal interest in their activities in general. He has been president of his club and of the county 4-H Club Council. He has twice attended leadership school at State college, won a trip to the Eastern States Exposition, and been president, vice president, and news reporter of his club.

RHODE ISLAND

Miss Mary Andrews, Kent County, has been carrying canning, baking, health, clothing, forestry, room improvement, and poultry for the past 9 years. She began with 100 baby chicks and has increased the number each year. This year she is brooding 600 Rhode Island Reds, whose average egg production is 199.6 eggs per bird. She won the Southern Rhode Island egg production contest for 1933-34, has won several first and second prizes and two scholarships, one being for the most outstanding 4-H girl in southern Rhode Island. She is an All Star member and is leader of a group of 12 girls. She has filled the offices of club secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president.

Mr. John E. Arruda, Newport County, started his club work with two heifers; after 2 years he added pigs and having won county championship with them, he changed to gardening which he likes better. He keeps a record of everything on the farm. He is a leader and All Star member, and has attended many fairs, having been a delegate to Camp Vail in 1934. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Mr. Arthur O. Beaudreau, Washington County, joined a 4-H club 6 years ago and has specialized in poultry work. The average production of his 350 birds was 129 eggs. He has won a trip to the State camp, and was selected delegate to Camp Vail in 1932. He is an All Star member. He has entered the State and county health contests. He has been secretary and president of his club.

Miss Barbara Salisbury, Providence County, started her 4-H club work 7 years ago with clothing, cooking, and health projects. In her third year she chose dairying and started with a purebred Holstein. She was selected as the outstanding girl in the State in dairy work. She does practically all her own sewing and some for the family. Through her club work she won a trip to Camp Vail in 1933 and 1934. She has given public demonstrations in cooking. In 1933-34 she started a club of 14 young girls who worked very hard. She is a junior leader and an All Star member. She has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Miss Mary Ardis, Sumter County, has had 8 years' experience in gardening, clothing, room-improvement, food-preservation, health, and poultry work. She has exhibited successfully at fairs many times. In 1929 she was club health representative, and in 1933 won a trip to Short Course as county baking-contest winner. For club achievement last fall she attended State fair and was announced one of the two best club members in the State. She has presided over the County 4-H Council and has supervised the 4-H booth at the county fair. She has filled the offices of president, vice president, and secretary.

Mr. Dan Bickley, Lexington County, joined a 4-H club in 1924, selecting corn, pigs, and cotton as his projects. He has won a trip to the State college for the best pig demonstration. He has been assistant leader, and president 7 years.

Miss Lorraine Kearse, Bamberg County, has carried gardening, poultry, peanuts, room improvement, and food preservation since joining the 4-H club. She has given demonstrations in egg and poultry judging, and has won trips to the State short course, State fair, and to the county camps. She has been assistant leader, local leader, secretary, and president.

Mr. Herbert Shealy, Newberry County, has been interested in corn, potatoes, calf, and pig club work since 1930. He participated in three livestock judging contests. Through his club work he won two trips to the State college as a member of the tri-county judging team. He has filled all the offices in his club.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Mr. Alois Fox, Codington County, receives recognition as a climax to 9 years' of 4-H achievement. As a result of his club work he has established herds of purebred Poland China hogs, Holstein dairy cows, and Angus beef cattle. Alois was left practically in complete charge of a 320-acre farm when he lost his father in 1931, facing seemingly unsurmountable obstacles. He has been a member of both the State champion dairy demonstration team and livestock team, and has won numerous high awards with his livestock exhibits. In 1933 he held the office of president of the 4-H members' association. He has had 2 years of leadership work and 1 year of assistant leadership.

Miss Margaret Jessen, Deuel County, holds a place in the "Hall of 4-H Fame" by completing 11 projects in 6 years. She is a member of the clothing, posture, home craft, and bread demonstration teams. In 1931 her county championship won for her a trip to the National Club Congress. She has exhibited fine leadership and has had great influence among the young people of her county. Margaret helps her father on his 600-acre farm. She is known by 4-H folks throughout the State because of her extensive demonstration team work; she frequently has given demonstrations in the stores at Gary on Saturday evenings. She is president of the County 4-H Members' Association.

Mr. Hagen Kelsey, Miner County, during his 8 years of club work has carried to his club and community a splendid spirit of unselfish service, despite adverse conditions. He has been interested in livestock work. When his county was without a county agent he is reported to have carried on admirably well. To his leadership largely is attributed increased membership in the pig club, notwithstanding drought and other unfavorable conditions. He is vice president of the State 4-H Club Members' Association.

Miss LuVerne Stark, McCook County, selected clothing, dairying, foods, canning, and home furnishings as her 4-H club work. She has a fine achievement record in general project work, demonstrations, judging, and style revue contests, and in addition has taken great interest in helping her father with the farm work. Her leadership ability was demonstrated this year when she personally induced 16 girls to join her club. She was awarded a trip to the National Club Congress in 1933. Writing poetry is one of her hobbies.

TENNESSEE

Mr. Herman Chitwood, Scott County, has been interested in Irish potatoes, soybeans, poultry, and farm accounting during his 7 years' membership. He built a chicken house and made a brooder large enough for 300 chicks. During the past 5 years he has won 17 prizes on his exhibits and has won trips to the 4-H camp four times. He has been on the county judging team, and in 1934 he entered the judging contest at Knoxville, placing second. Farm accounting has taught him to know all assets and liabilities. From the proceeds of his club work he has bought his books, clothes, and incidentals, and has a bank account. This year he organized a club of 50 members, ready to start 4-H club work. He has been elected club leader since 1931.

Mr. Owen Hedges, Montgomery County, joined a 4-H club in 1928, selecting tobacco and pig club work. The following year he added forestry and set out 250 black-locust seedlings; some of these trees are now almost large enough for posts. In addition he also has carried sweetpotato and Irish potato, corn, poultry, dairy-calf, and baby-beef projects. He has conducted culling demonstrations for the poultry club and put on forestry demonstrations for the club boys. Each year he has exhibited at county, and State fairs and fat-stock shows, and has won a long list of premiums. This year he is a member of the Montgomery County dairy judging team. He has served in office as president, secretary, and assistant club leader. The profits from his club work total $1,029.66. He now owns a horse, a mule, a sow and 6 pigs, and 6 calves.

Miss Juanita Irwin, Anderson County, has spent 5 years in 4-H club work, carrying poultry, dairying, foods, gardening, clothing, home-improvement, and health projects. She raises turkeys, ducks, and chickens. During the past 2 years, through her gardening project, she has had something green growing throughout the year. She has canned 825 jars of fruits, meats, and vegetables. The vegetables were from her own garden. With prize money she purchased a pressure cooker. During the past 3 years she has given demonstrations and entered many judging contests. She earned the money to buy a heifer calf, and now has a cow and two calves. She assisted in making a mattress. The pillows are made from feathers of the ducks she raised. Each year she has exhibited her products at county, interstate, and national fairs, winning many prizes and medals. Last year she won a trip to the National Club Congress. The total profit earned during her five years of club work is $669.73. She has filled the offices of secretary, vice president, president, club leader, and reporter.

Miss Margaret F. Morton, Shelby County, joined a 4-H club in 1927, choosing gardening, canning, clothing, home management and beautification. She has sold vegetables to curb-market dealers. She has raised 22 varieties of vegetables and 17 varieties of flowers, some of which she has sold on the curb market, and has won first prize for cut-flower display. She has been a member of the egg-judging team, and as a member of the food-preservation judging contest she won a trip to the First Southern 4-H Club Congress. She has given talks on club work, and has exhibited her work successfully, winning many "firsts" in addition to a trip to the National Club Congress. The financial profits from her club work total $834.62. She has filled the office of president, secretary, and treasurer of her club.

TEXAS

Miss Ollie M. Erskine, Wheeler County, took poultry for her first demonstration, and raised 50 chickens for home use. She also has undertaken gardening, sewing, and canning. Being the eldest child in a family of children, she was kept busy helping her mother to can 1,000 quarts of food. Her club work gave her a good foundation for taking charge of the home and nine children after her mother's death. Each year she has had a fine garden, which has furnished fresh vegetables for the table and for canning to meet the winter needs. Last year she canned 1,365 quarts of food, which is approximately the amount of food she has canned each year as she has a family of 10 to feed. Through her knowledge of sewing she has been able to make a great many of the clothes for the smaller children in her family. She has succeeded in attending every club meeting this year, including council meetings and encampments. She has filled the offices of vice president, president, and song leader.

Miss Mabel Evard, Milam County, started her club work in 1929 with gardening, canning, poultry, room improvement, and turkeys. She has improved the yard each year by planting shrubs, screen plantings, and has set out a total of 24 trees. From her garden she has had an abundant supply of fresh vegetables for table use and has canned 118 glass jars and 526 cans of food. Of these she has sold 108 cans of vegetables. She has given demonstrations in yard improvement, room improvement, and control of insects. She was one of the 25 girls in Texas who won a "gold star" on the merits of good work. Through her club work she has won 3 trips to Farmers Short Course and 2 trips to the Dallas Fair.

Mr. Sammie Hoerster, Mason County, began his club work in 1927; starting with a purebred Hereford steer which later won grand champion at the Mason Fat-Stock Show. He has raised corn and cane hay for his stock, which he has exhibited successfully, and which has won consistently. He also has judged livestock at the Houston Stock Show. He believes that careful selection of choice calves is one of the important points which make for a successful demonstration. He has been awarded trips to the National Club Congress, State Boys' Encampment, Texas Agricultural Workers' Association Convention, and has filled all the offices in his club. At present he is feeding 6 Hereford calves, and is farming 10 acres of crop land to feed his calves. He has built an arbor for shade in his feeding pen.

Mr. Clarence Thieme, Cameron County, has had 8 years' experience in poultry, potatoes, dairying, corn, cotton, and swine. He was the first poultry man in his county to change the method of feeding of mash and grain, to grain, corn, milk, and green feed to reduce the cost of production. The results obtained have led others to follow this method. The net profit on his poultry during these years was $901.64. He has farmed 20 acres of cotton and averaged 254 pounds per acre; has carried swine and dairying demonstrations successfully. He entered the State poultry judging contest. He has won two scholarships to the Texas A. & M. Short Course, a 2-week trip to Mexico, given by the American Legion for school and labor records. Clarence attributes his records largely to his club work. He has filled all the offices of his club.

VERMONT

Mr. Malcolm Joslyn, Washington County, selected gardening, calf, and dairy herd as his club work 6 years ago. He was county calf-project champion in 1932, was selected in 1934 as junior herdsman, and also has been county champion in the dairy-herd project. He has been delegate to Camp Vail, has attended State and county camps, and has been councilor in the county camp. He is assistant leader of a younger boys' group this year.

Miss Flora Perley, Franklin County, has enrolled in dairy, room-improvement, clothing, and foods club work. She has won second place in the State Food Record Contest. She has attended State camp twice, and this year she is leading a group of younger girls.

Mr. Chester Putney, Bennington County, has had 6 years' experience in handicraft, potato work, and dairying. He frequently presides at county meetings.

Miss Marion Simson, Caledonia County, chose clothing, canning, and food preservation as her club projects. She is one of the most active club members of her county, and has led a club for 2 years. She is a member of the County Council of the State honorary society, and of the leaders' association and recreation council of her county. For 2 years she was winner of the canning contests, and also of the dress-revue contests.

VIRGINIA

Miss Miriam Layne, Goochland County, included canning, cooking, sewing, and room improvement among her club enterprises during the past 10 years. She has exhibited her work successfully, winning first place in the county style dress revue, and several trips to club camp and State short course. She has been a member of the demonstration and judging teams. Her club has taken part in the spring and fall flower shows. She has been outstanding in room improvement, a leader in recreation work, and assistant leader for the last two years. She has filled the offices of treasurer and vice president.

Mr. George S. Maul, Chesterfield County, undertook pig-club work in 1927, the next year he added corn and potatoes, and in 1930 poultry and then a calf. He has exhibited his projects each year, winning consistently. He attended State short course three times, when he studied dairy judging. George has been a member of the county judging team, has attended the State grain contest, and was president of his club for 2 years. During his 8 years of club work, he has won prizes amounting to $328.60, the profit, counting the value of the animals now on hand, being $717.52. He has been local leader and treasurer of the 4-H Club Council.

Mr. Egbert W. Thompson, Jr., Prince William County, started his club work in 1930 with a Guernsey heifer calf, and believes that by rearing calves in cooperation with his father, who keeps several purebreds, he has learned much about the management of a dairy herd. He was a member of the county dairy judging teams at the State fair in 1933 and 1934. Last year he placed third among 125 competing members. Egbert keeps complete records for the whole farm, thus giving him a check on what each part of the farm is doing. He has attended short course four times. During the past 2 years he has advised the younger boys in his club and assisted them in keeping and completing their records. He has been secretary, treasurer, and president.

Miss Shirley Whittington, Amelia County, in her 6 years of membership has carried a variety of projects such as canning, home improvement, clothing, poultry, and foods, and always has kept fine records and turned them in promptly. During the last 2 years she has canned over 300 quarts of food alone and has assisted in canning many hundreds more. She has given demonstrations and exhibited successfully, winning two trips to the district club camp and two trips to the State short course, one as winner in the "correct dress for school" contest, and the other as winner of the home-improvement judging contest. In 1933 her canning won first place in the county. She is outstanding as a leader of recreation and music and has twice been selected as delegate to the County Recreational Conference. She has served in leadership work in her own community as well as in county-wide work. She has filled the offices of secretary, treasurer, president, and song leader.

WASHINGTON

Miss Zena Edwards, Grays Harbor County, has had 9 years' experience in sewing, canning, room improvement, cooking, meal preparation, orchard, and gardening. In 1932 she won a trip to the National Club Congress. Her canning and other exhibits have won a long list of "firsts" at county, State, and national fairs. She has been prominent as a member of judging and demonstration teams, has occupied every office in her club, has been outstanding in leadership qualities, and has taken an active part in community activities.

Mr. Delbert R. Lynch, Kittitas County, built up his flock of sheep from 3 to 39 in the 7 years in which he has been a member of the sheep club. Poultry, potatoes and gardening also have claimed his attention. He has entered the health contests four times. He has exhibited successfully, winning 24 "firsts" for his projects, and has won a trip to the National Club Congress. He has taken an active part in community activities and has participated in judging and demonstration teams many times. Delbert was selected to give demonstrations on a marketing train (special). He has demonstrated his leadership as vice president of the County 4-H Club, and as garden club leader, assistant leader, and holder of various other 4-H club offices.

Miss Alice Roberts, Yakima County, has many fine achievements to her credit in the 7 years she has been a club member. Sewing, room improvement, cooking, and canning are some of her projects. Alice has won a long list of "firsts" at county, State, and interstate fairs; and trips to the State camp and the Pacific International Livestock Show. As a member of the county judging and demonstration teams she has taken an active part in many community activities. She has filled every office in her club, and also has been secretary of the district leaders' association.

Mr. Donald Wayrynen, Cowlitz County, has specialized in dairying, poultry, and swine for the past 5 years. He has done outstanding work on the county 4-H club poultry judging team, being on a team that placed first for 2 years.* Donald also served for 2 years on the livestock judging contest at the same show. He won a trip to the National Club Congress. As president of the county 4-H council and secretary of the Cowlitz County Guernsey Breeders' Association, he has been prominent in county and community activities. His leadership has been shown by serving as president of his club for 3 years; leader, 2 years; and assistant leader, 2 years. *At the Pacific International Livestock Show at Portland.

WEST VIRGINIA

Miss Beatrice Howard, Pocahontas County, has sewed, canned, and baked for 10 years as a 4-H club girl, always doing creditable work and achieving success with honors in her projects when the results were exhibited at the fair. She also has carried room improvement. Beatrice taught several women the cold-pack method of canning. Through her exhibits at State and county fairs she won first prize in sewing and was winner of a health contest. With her mother's help she makes all the bread for a family of six; she has coached a demonstration team. Last year she organized a 4-H club, went to the homes and canned, baked, and gave several demonstrations. She now is leading two 4-H clubs. She has attended many State and county camps and has filled the offices of president, secretary, and treasurer.

Miss Virginia K. Pinnell, Jackson County, has been interested in baking, clothing, room improvement, gardening, and canning for the past 10 years. Each year she has exhibited her work and has won prizes and trips. She has taken part in judging and has given demonstrations in egg candling and biscuit making. Last year she won first in the County Style Revue. She has attended nine county camps, being chosen last year as an All Star member. She has entered the county health contests. Virginia has been president, secretary, song leader, and assistant leader, and now is leader of her local club.

Mr. Harold H. Smith, Hampshire County, through 6 years' experience in raising potatoes and purebred pigs, in gardening and handicraft, has won 11 "firsts" and earned $336.23 for his work. This year he has added home-beautification work. He has exhibited at many county and regional exhibits. His potato project won for him a trip to the State camp, and he won a medal in the county livestock contest. At the county camp he was chosen Chief of Tribe. He has given demonstrations in wood finishing. Harold filled the office of president for 2 years.

Mr. Jack Tyree, Cabell County, selected purebred dairy calves, potatoes, corn, alfalfa, and gardening work, and has earned $657.80 in the past 8 years. He has made 13 exhibits at county and State fairs, winning many "firsts." He also won first place in the county health contest in 1932 and 1933. He has been a member of the cattle judging team and of the demonstration team. He has attended both State and county camp several times. He has occupied the office of president.

WISCONSIN

Miss Arlene Badertscher, Rock County, chose sewing, poultry, gardening, pigs, baking, junior leadership, and canning as her projects in 4-H club work. She has represented her club many times in demonstration and judging contests, and won first in the clothing judging contest at the National Club Congress in 1933. She entered the health contest this year at the State fair and stood 94.3. In addition to the trip to the National Club Congress, she has won trips to State camp and State fair. She has filled the offices of local leader, secretary, treasurer, and president of her club.

Mr. Floyd T. Crosby, Rock County, has specialized in junior-leadership, calf, and pig club work since 1929. Each year he has judged at the county fair, and one year at the State fair, and has given many public demonstrations. Last year he won first place in the county health contest, and stood 97 in 1933. He has won a trip to the State fair as the best calf-club member. Floyd has been assistant leader, local leader, and president of his club.

Mr. Warren E. Schmidt, Dane County, selected poultry, garden, corn, and junior leadership as his club work. He has exhibited, judged, and demonstrated successfully at State and county fairs. Last year he entered the health contest. He has won trips to the State fair. Warren has filled the offices of local leader, president, treasurer, and song and play director, and has been chairman of the boys' project meetings.

Miss Winnifred I. Zepp, Dodge County, started her gardening, poultry, baking, and room improvement work in 1927. She has entered 15 judging contests in crops, canning, baking, and house furnishing at both State and county contests. She has given 22 demonstrations in gardening, canning, poultry, and baking at State fairs, and has entered 4 health contests. She has won a trip to the National Club Congress. She has been secretary and junior leader of her club for 3 years.

WYOMING

Mr. Harvey Brockmeyer, Converse County, began his 4-H club experiences 6 years ago, when he undertook corn, gardening, and beef-calf work. He has exhibited at State fairs, where he has been declared State crops-club champion; he was awarded a trip to the National Club Congress in 1932. He has done much to promote the work and to keep other young folks interested during the times of drought and hardship in the community. His record books always have been considered outstanding. His club has held Thanksgiving and Christmas entertainments for the families of its members, made toys for the little children, and built up a library for the use of the community. In order that the parents may know what the club is doing, Harvey edits a 4-H News; each family is given a copy and one copy is sent to the State club leader. When their leader was taken ill Harvey took his place, and the club finished with 100 percent completions. He has held the offices of secretary, president, and editor.

Miss Elaine Harrison, Lincoln County, has specialized in clothing and cooking during the past 6 years, and the large number of prizes she has won indicate that she maintains a high standard of quality in all her work. She has exhibited at State and county fairs. Her secretary's book won first prize in the county. In 1934 she placed second in the State home-economics test. In the summer of 1931 she found that her experience in club work stood her in good stead when she was left in charge of her home for 2 weeks. She has served in all the offices of her club.

Miss Joan Horner, Park County, has completed 8 years' activity in 4-H club work with clothing, foods, and turkey-raising as her projects. Her exhibits have won a number of prizes in both State and county contests. Joan placed second in the State style revue last year and won third in the State home economics championship. She has done much to keep the 4-H club work going in her community. She has been a member of the demonstration team and also has trained a demonstration team. She assisted in leading a first-year sewing club and for 2 years led the club alone; she also led the turkey club. Out of 40 baby "turks" she marketed 33 birds, clearing about $95. She has won several trips to the State fair. Joan has been president, treasurer, and song leader of her club.

STATE CLUB LEADERS

Ninth National Farm Boys' and Girls' 4-H Club Camp

Alabama.....	T. A. Sims Elizabeth S. Delony
Arkansas.....	W. J. Jernigan Etta McGaugh
Colorado.....	C. W. Ferguson
Connecticut.....	Elsie Trabue A. J. Brundage
Delaware.....	A. D. Cobb Anne B. Moore
Florida.....	W. T. Nettles Anna Mae Sikes
Georgia.....	A. S. Bussey Lucille Turner
Illinois.....	F. F. Gingrich Mary A. McKee
Indiana.....	Edna Troth
Iowa.....	Paul C. Taff Ella Loughran
Kansas.....	Lora Hilyard Dr. J. W. Lumb
Kentucky.....	Garnett J. McKenney
Louisiana.....	W. C. Abbott
Maine.....	L. H. Shibles Loana Spearin
Maryland.....	E. G. Jenkins Dorothy Emerson
Massachusetts.....	G. L. Farley Tena Bishop
Michigan.....	Lois Corbett A. G. Kettunen

Minnesota..... T. A. Erickson
Mississippi..... M. M. Bedenbaugh
Elaine Massey
Missouri..... Jane Hinote
Nebraska..... L. I. Frisbie
New Hampshire..... C. B. Wadleigh
Mary L. Sanborn
New Jersey..... A. M. Hulbert
Rose Eckert
Marion Butters
New York..... W. J. Wright
North Carolina..... L. R. Harrill
Ruth Current
North Dakota..... H. E. Rilling
Ohio..... W. H. Palmer
Pennsylvania..... C. P. Lang
Nellie E. Clogston
Oklahoma..... B. A. Pratt
Mrs. Elva R. Duvall
Rhode Island..... L. F. Kinney
South Dakota..... H. M. Jones
Gertrude Berg
Kathryn Webster
Beulah M. Rodgers
Tennessee..... Hobart O. Massey
Ruby McKeel
Texas..... E. C. Martin
Kate Adele Hill
Vermont..... E. L. Ingalls
Martha E. Leighton
Virginia..... Maude Wallace
Hallie Hughes
Miss Chilton Ryburn
Gordon A. Elcan

Washington..... V. J. Valentine
Inez Arnquist

West Virginia..... I. B. Boggs
Gladys M. Scranage

Wisconsin..... Wakelin McNeel

Wyoming..... Evangeline Jennings
Edith E. Gwynn.

